DOMINANT 2014 HANSA CLASS CHAMPIONSHIPS

Over Easter this year GRYC will be hosting the Dominant 2014 Australian Class Championships at GRYC. The organising committee is expecting 60 – 70 sailors to participate, and as many will be sailors with disability we will need a huge team of volunteers and carers. If you can help out on land or on the water, please contact Brian Southcott or Lyn Roberts. There will be more details to follow.

Socially Yours

Summer 2014

Welcome to the Summer Edition of Socially Yours

Welcome to 2014

Following on from Christmas, New Year and the Christmas Twilights we are now heading into the season that is iconic for GRYC. The Marina Hindmarsh Island Goolwa Regatta Week and Milang Goolwa Freshwater Classic are just around the corner and the organisers are now at the pointy end of planning and executing each event. Please take time to check your emails and the program on the GRW website, and register your boats if you are intending to sail! I am grateful to those of you who have already volunteered for the many aspects involved BUT we are still seeking help from more people if you have time. Maybe you have friends or relatives who could help out too. If you can help, please email me on glroberts@picknowl.com.au or phone 0438275576. This is always an exciting time for GRYC and this year we have outsourced some areas to alleviate extra pressure so that we can all enjoy participating as well.

There are other events of note happening in the next few months and you will find reference to them throughout Socially Yours. Check them out and join in where you can – everyone is welcome.

Lachlan Kelly, our new chef, hit the ground running last Friday and I am sure many of our members and friends were impressed with the added variety on the menu and the efficiency in the kitchen. Please make Locky welcome and watch out for his future culinary delights.

There is also a special dining event to look forward to. "Guess Who's Coming to Dinner" is sure to be a great night for all members who join in. Enjoy your summer (soon!) at GRYC guess who's coming to dinner

No it isn't Sidney Poitier but it could be YOU!

On March 1st the Social Committee is running an event with a difference. There will be 10 host couples who will each serve a three course dinner in their home to 3 guest couples. Guests pay $25pp and each couple takes 2 bottles of wine—one for the dinner and one as a gift for their hosts. Guests will meet at the GRYC at 6.30pm where their names will be drawn from a hat and randomly matched with a host. Guests will then be given the address only of their hosts. So, it is not only "guess who's coming to dinner" but also "who is having us to dinner."

Bookings must be made with Ben, payment in advance please. Members interested in hosting a dinner should contact Liz Cooper on 041 472 2197.
