There were a total of 9 entries competing in the 2015 Sailability Challenge. A total of three races, the first started in front of the Goolwa Aquatic Club and made its way across the river to the northern marina basin at Hindmarsh island, the next two races around a series of buoys in the basin. Racing was closely fought by all with Ian Rick from the Murray Bridge club winning out on the day, Trish Faulkner GRYC second and Rosie Rick Murray Bridge coming in third. Sailors and spectators had a great day.
