

DIVIDED SKY IN GIBRALTAR - July 2012

"Divided Sky" (second from left) sits snugly at the marina Alcaides Puerto Deportivo, La Linea, Spain - just across the airport runway from Gibraltar. Next to DS on the far left is a Valiant 40 called "Valiant Lady." Twenty years ago, Colin sailed in company with the previous owner of "Valiant Lady" through Indonesia. A warm comraderie developed between the two yachts as Col relived sailing adventures and party times in places far away. Having refuelled, watered, filled cooking gas, inflated our new dinghy, secured insurance for the Med, provisioned and laundered us, clothes and the yacht, we are hoping to leave tomorrow (27/7) for the 500 mile sail to the Balearic Islands.
